

The Salt Lick Story

Take a deep breath and inhale the aroma of some of the best BBQ the Hill Country has to offer. You've found "The Salt Lick," so named by Hisako Roberts and her husband, the late Thurman Roberts, because "a Salt Lick is something where all the animals congregate. There is something good, something essential about it." Family reunions provided them the opportunity to gather and share family BBQ recipes that had been handed down from generation to generation since the Civil War. Their meals were such a success, friends encouraged them to start their own restaurant. The stones of the building were quarried from their ranch. Everything was done by them with their own hands—building and cooking with care and love, a pride in quality and a job done right.

Thurman's Pride

A 4-5 lb. Certified Angus Beef Brisket cooked slowly for 16 hours and basted with Roberts' Family Original Recipe BBQ Sauce. This was Thurman's pride and joy! He insisted upon only the finest cut of meat, cooked as slow as possible. His motto was to "buy only the best meat and cook it with a lot of pride." We adhere to his tradition of hard work and quality. That is why it carries his name, Thurman's Pride. We include a bottle of Original Recipe BBQ Sauce with this order. Serves 8.
